

transition

lessons from Exodus

Melons, Leeks, Onions, and Garlic

Numbers 11:4-34

Warning: This message may upset your Appetite

Numbers 11:4-34

These things (Difficulties in the Exodus) happened to them as examples and were written down as warnings for us, on whom the culmination of the ages has come. So, if you think you are standing firm, be careful that you don't fall!

-I Corinthians 10:11-12

1. Holding on to the preferences of the past will not allow us to appreciate the gifts that God is giving to us today.

“But now we have lost our appetite;
we never see anything but this manna!”

2. God is continually preparing his children for life in the next season.

“And it (the manna) tasted like something made with olive oil.”

3. Leadership can never satisfy the preferences of the past while leading into the future.

“Where can I get meat for all these people?”

4 . Satisfying our preferences can lead to deadly consequences.

“...there they buried the people who had craved other food.”

Kibroth Haatavah
Graves of Craving

