Christmas through the Eyes of a Child

“Through Eyes of Love”

I love you Deedee.

And Deedee . . .

You're getting
even cuter.

Don't cry, Mother dear,
don't worry for me.
If we must go begging,
a good beggar I'll be.

For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that you through his poverty might become rich.

(2 Corinthians 8:9)

Jesus looked at him
and loved him.

Jesus turned and saw her.
“Take heart, daughter,” he said, “your faith has healed you.” And the woman was healed at that moment.

When Jesus landed and saw a large crowd, he had compassion on them,
because they were like
sheep without a shepherd.

start seeing.

Do you see what I see?

Bring me food and drink,
and wood for a fire,
we're going to eat and drink with that man!

stop watching.
start seeing.

Do you see what I see?
