QUESTION OF DISCOVERY

Of what you know of Jesus,
do you think he was giving a passport to be used as a tourist or as an explorer?

TOURIST: a person who travels for pleasure, usually sightseeing and staying in hotels.

1. LIKES TO KNOW THE SET PLAN AND SCHEDULE.
2. DOESN'T LIKE TO GIVE UP ANY COMFORT.
3. LIKES TO SEE THINGS WITHOUT TOO MUCH INVOLVEMENT.
4. ENJOYS SHOPPING FOR SOUVENIRS.

EXPLORER: a person who explores an unknown or little known region for the purpose of discovery.

1. STAYS FLEXIBLE AND OPEN TO NEW DISCOVERIES.
2. RISK OUTPLAYS COMFORT.
3. ENTERS IN AS A PARTICIPANT.
4. THE EXPERIENCE IS THE SOUVENIR.

...Your sermon series over the last year or so have been challenging me to really examine my life, who I am and who God is pushing me to be. I have a comfortable life, good friends and a wonderful family. But, I am realizing that this is not it, I need to really live out my faith in a more tangible way to others around me.

...after a lot of prayer and soul
wrestling, I decided that the Holy Spirit needed to be obeyed and that I was to join her.

...On the night of my first practice about four weeks ago, I drove white-knuckled, shaking and in constant prayer up to Enola to the Olympic Skating Center. The first vehicle I pull in beside is a jacked-up truck with a white female inside all tattooed and smoking a cigarette.

This past week I was offered a job at Abby's preschool. I didn't even know about it, and when I received a call from her teacher, she mentioned that my name came to mind as someone who should have the available weekly cleaning job. Unexpected blessings like this only confirm that the Lord is leading me on an ultra-cool faith adventure.

...Would you be willing to partner with us in prayer as we seek God's guidance and direction
in this new adventure?
