JESUS WENT THROUGH ALL THE TOWNS AND VILLAGES, TEACHING IN THEIR SYNAGOGUES, PROCLAIMING THE

An aerial photograph of a vast, arid landscape. The terrain is characterized by deep, winding cracks in the dry earth, creating a complex, maze-like pattern. A single, light-colored path or road winds through the lower portion of the frame. The background shows rolling hills and valleys under a hazy, overcast sky, with the overall color palette dominated by earthy browns, tans, and muted blues.

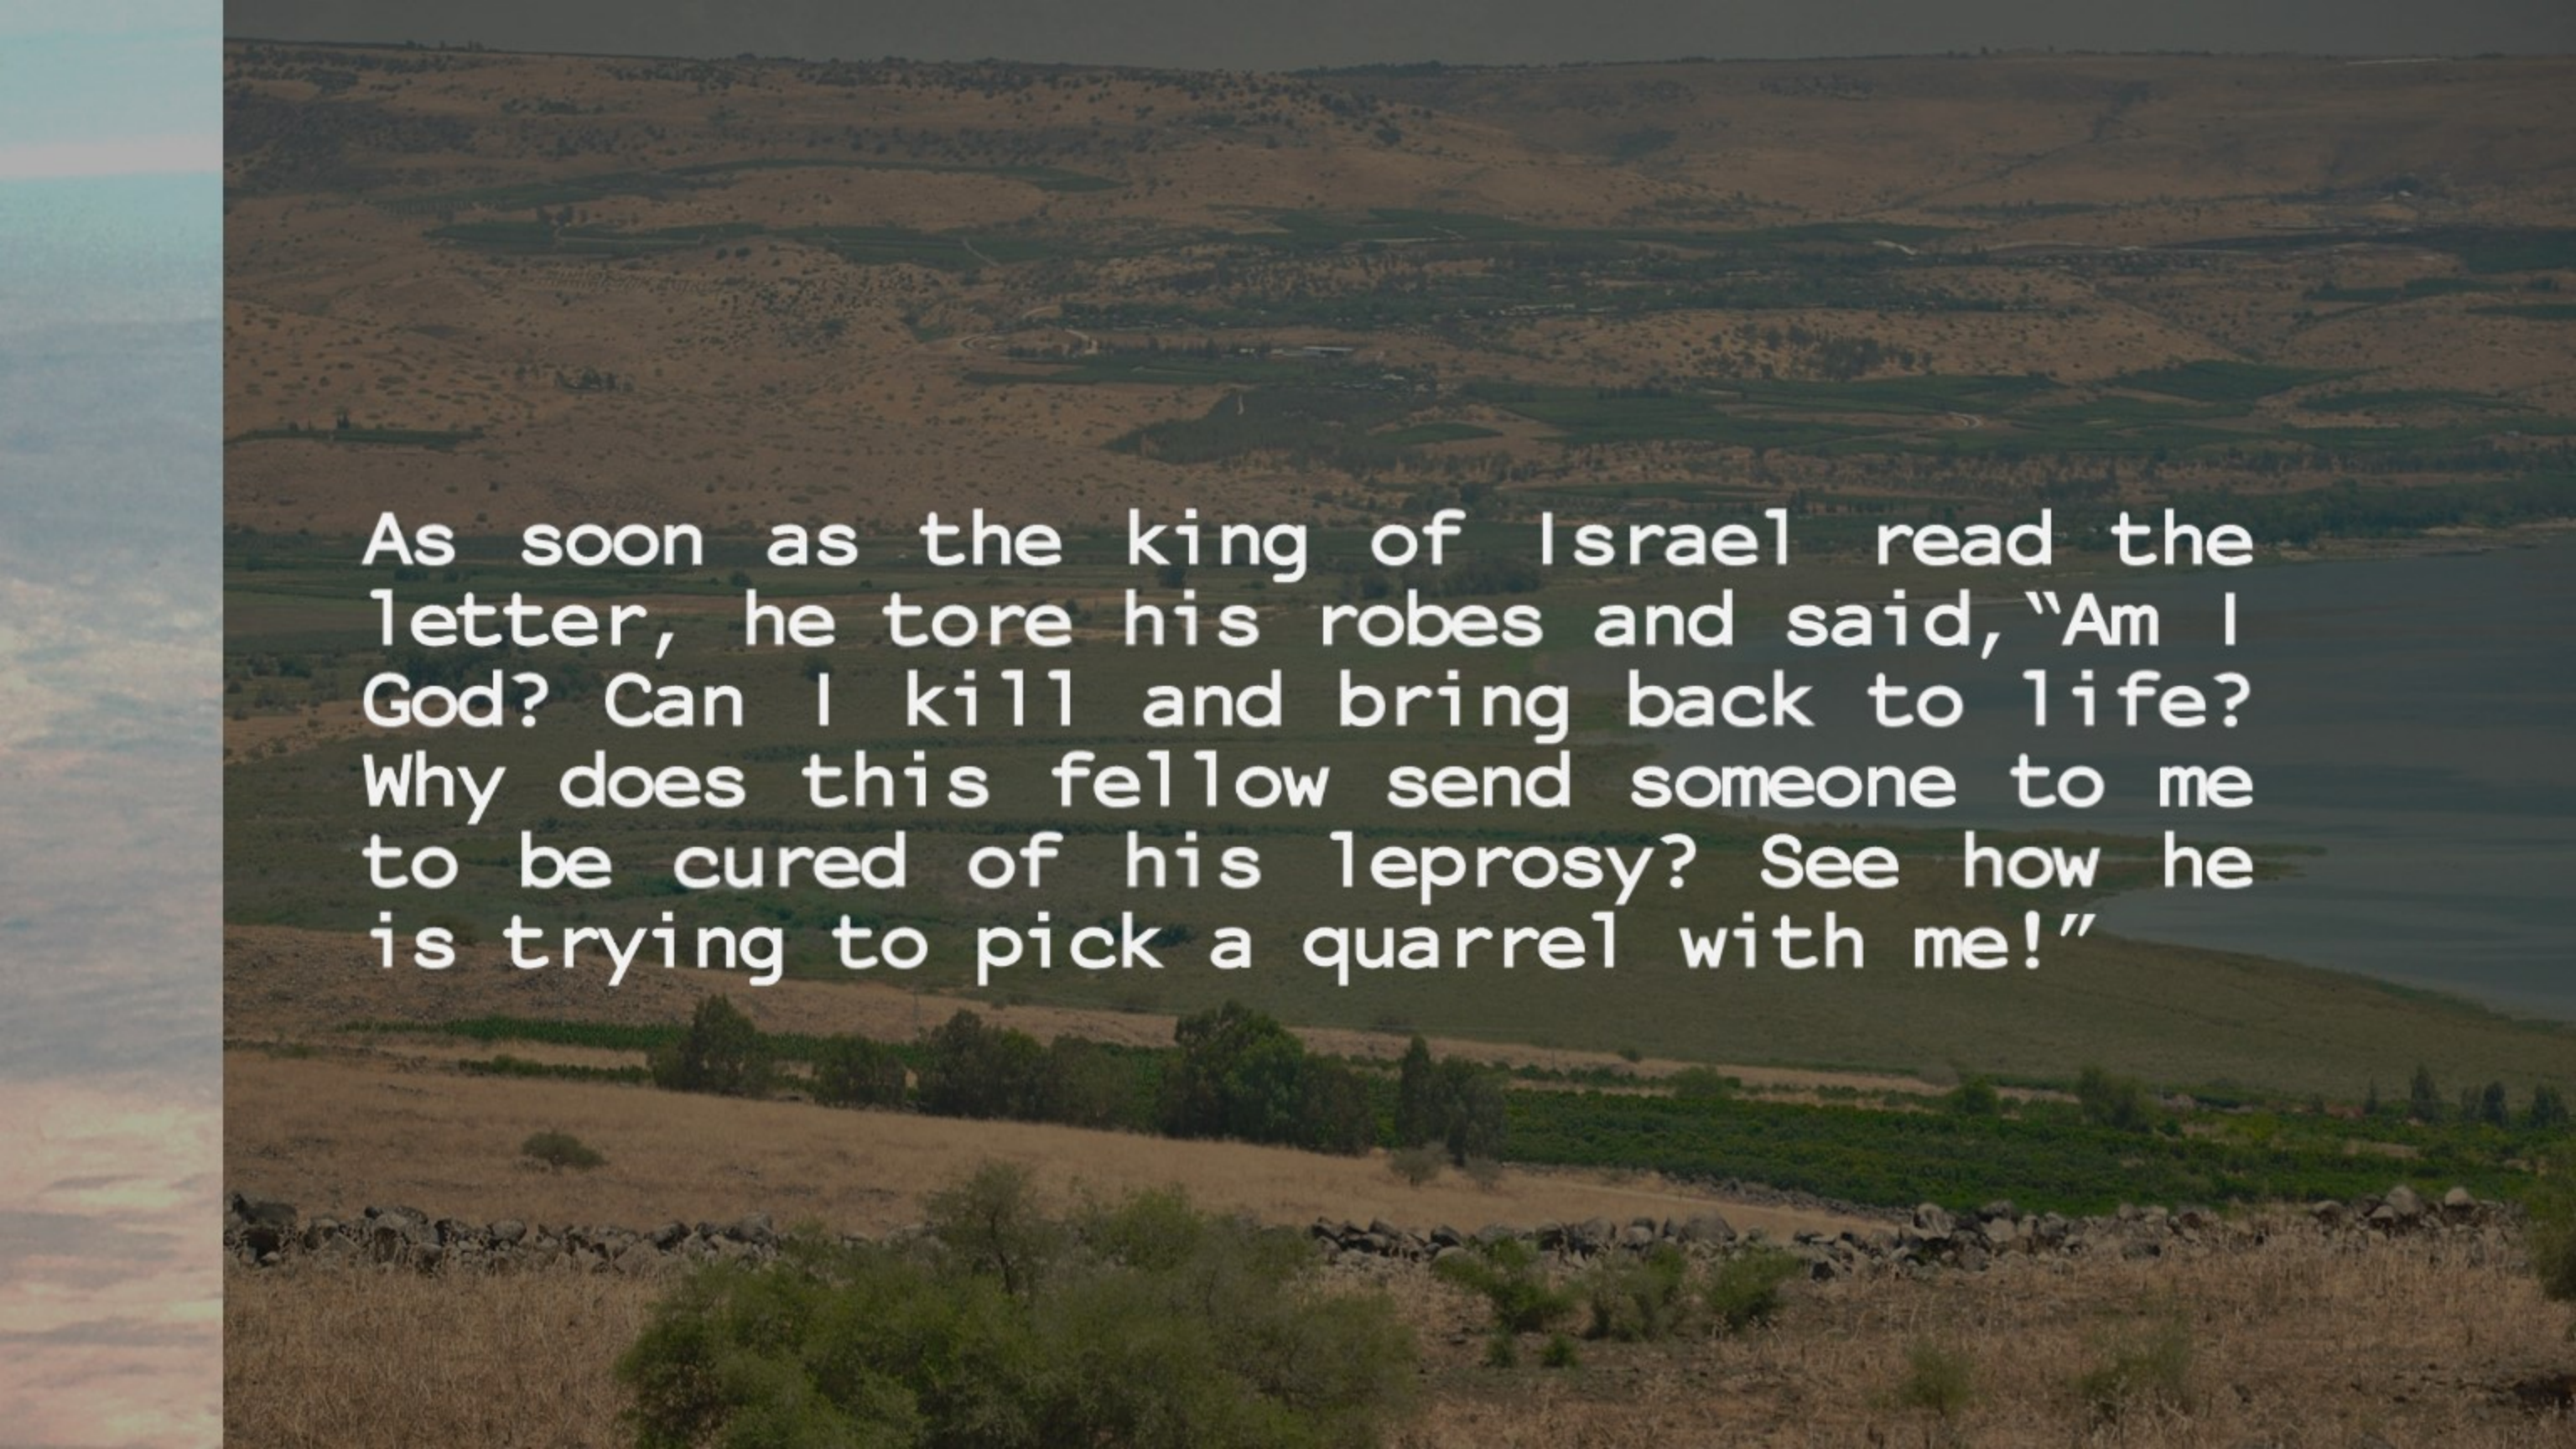

Now Naaman was commander of the army of the king of Aram. He was a great man in the sight of his master and highly regarded, because through him the Lord had given victory to Aram. He was a valiant soldier, but he had leprosy.

An aerial photograph of a vast, arid desert landscape. The terrain is characterized by deep, winding cracks in the dry earth, creating a complex, textured pattern. A single, light-colored road or path winds through the lower portion of the frame. In the distance, the landscape transitions into rolling hills or low mountains under a hazy, overcast sky. The overall color palette is dominated by earthy browns, tans, and muted blues.

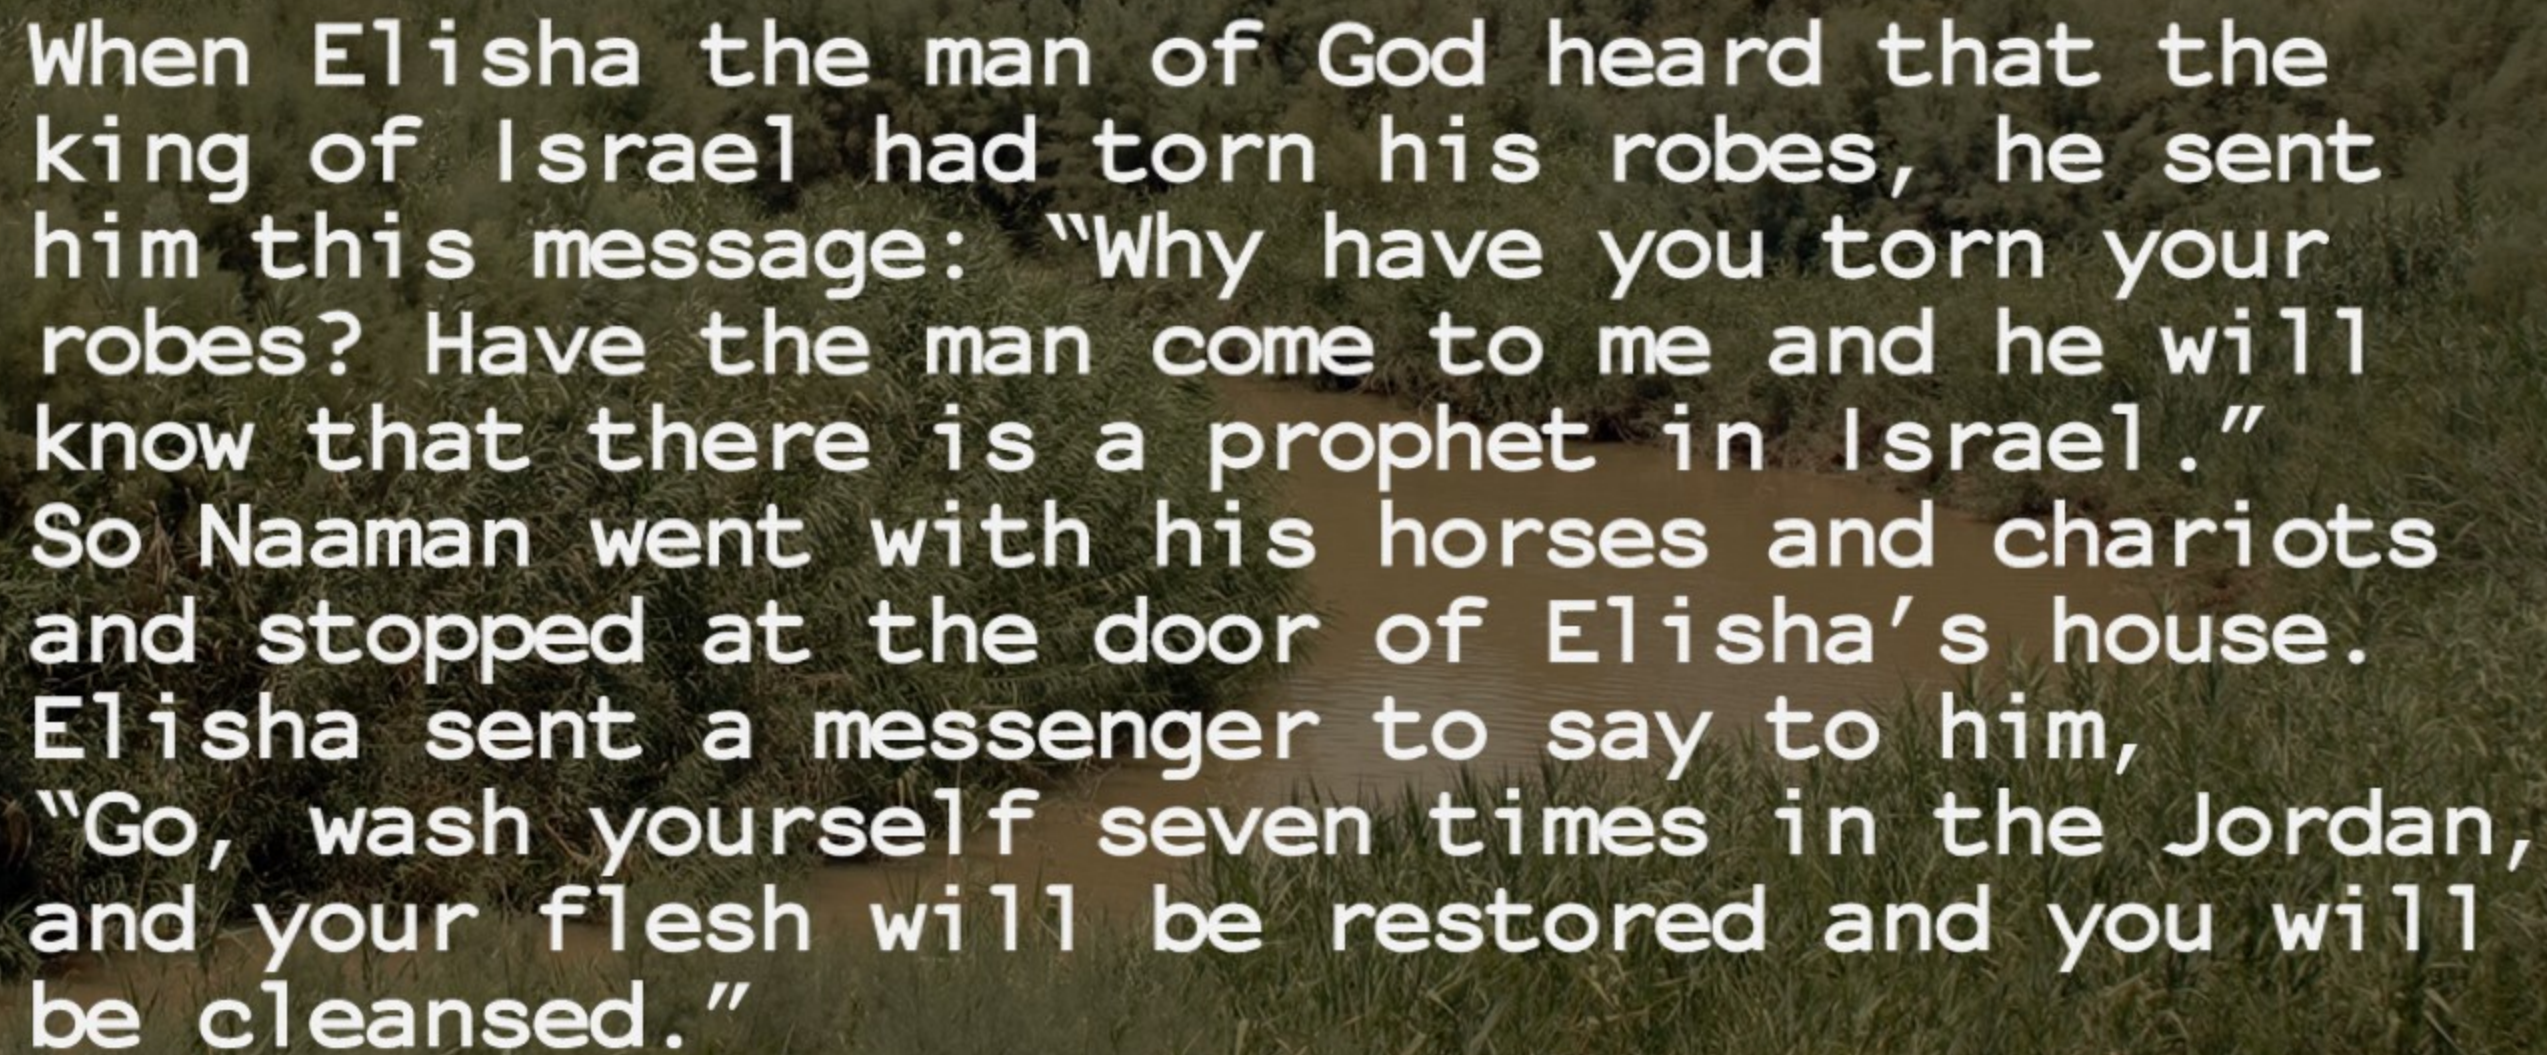

Now bands from Aram had gone out and had taken captive a young girl from Israel, and she served Naaman's wife. She said to her mistress, "If only my master would see the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy."

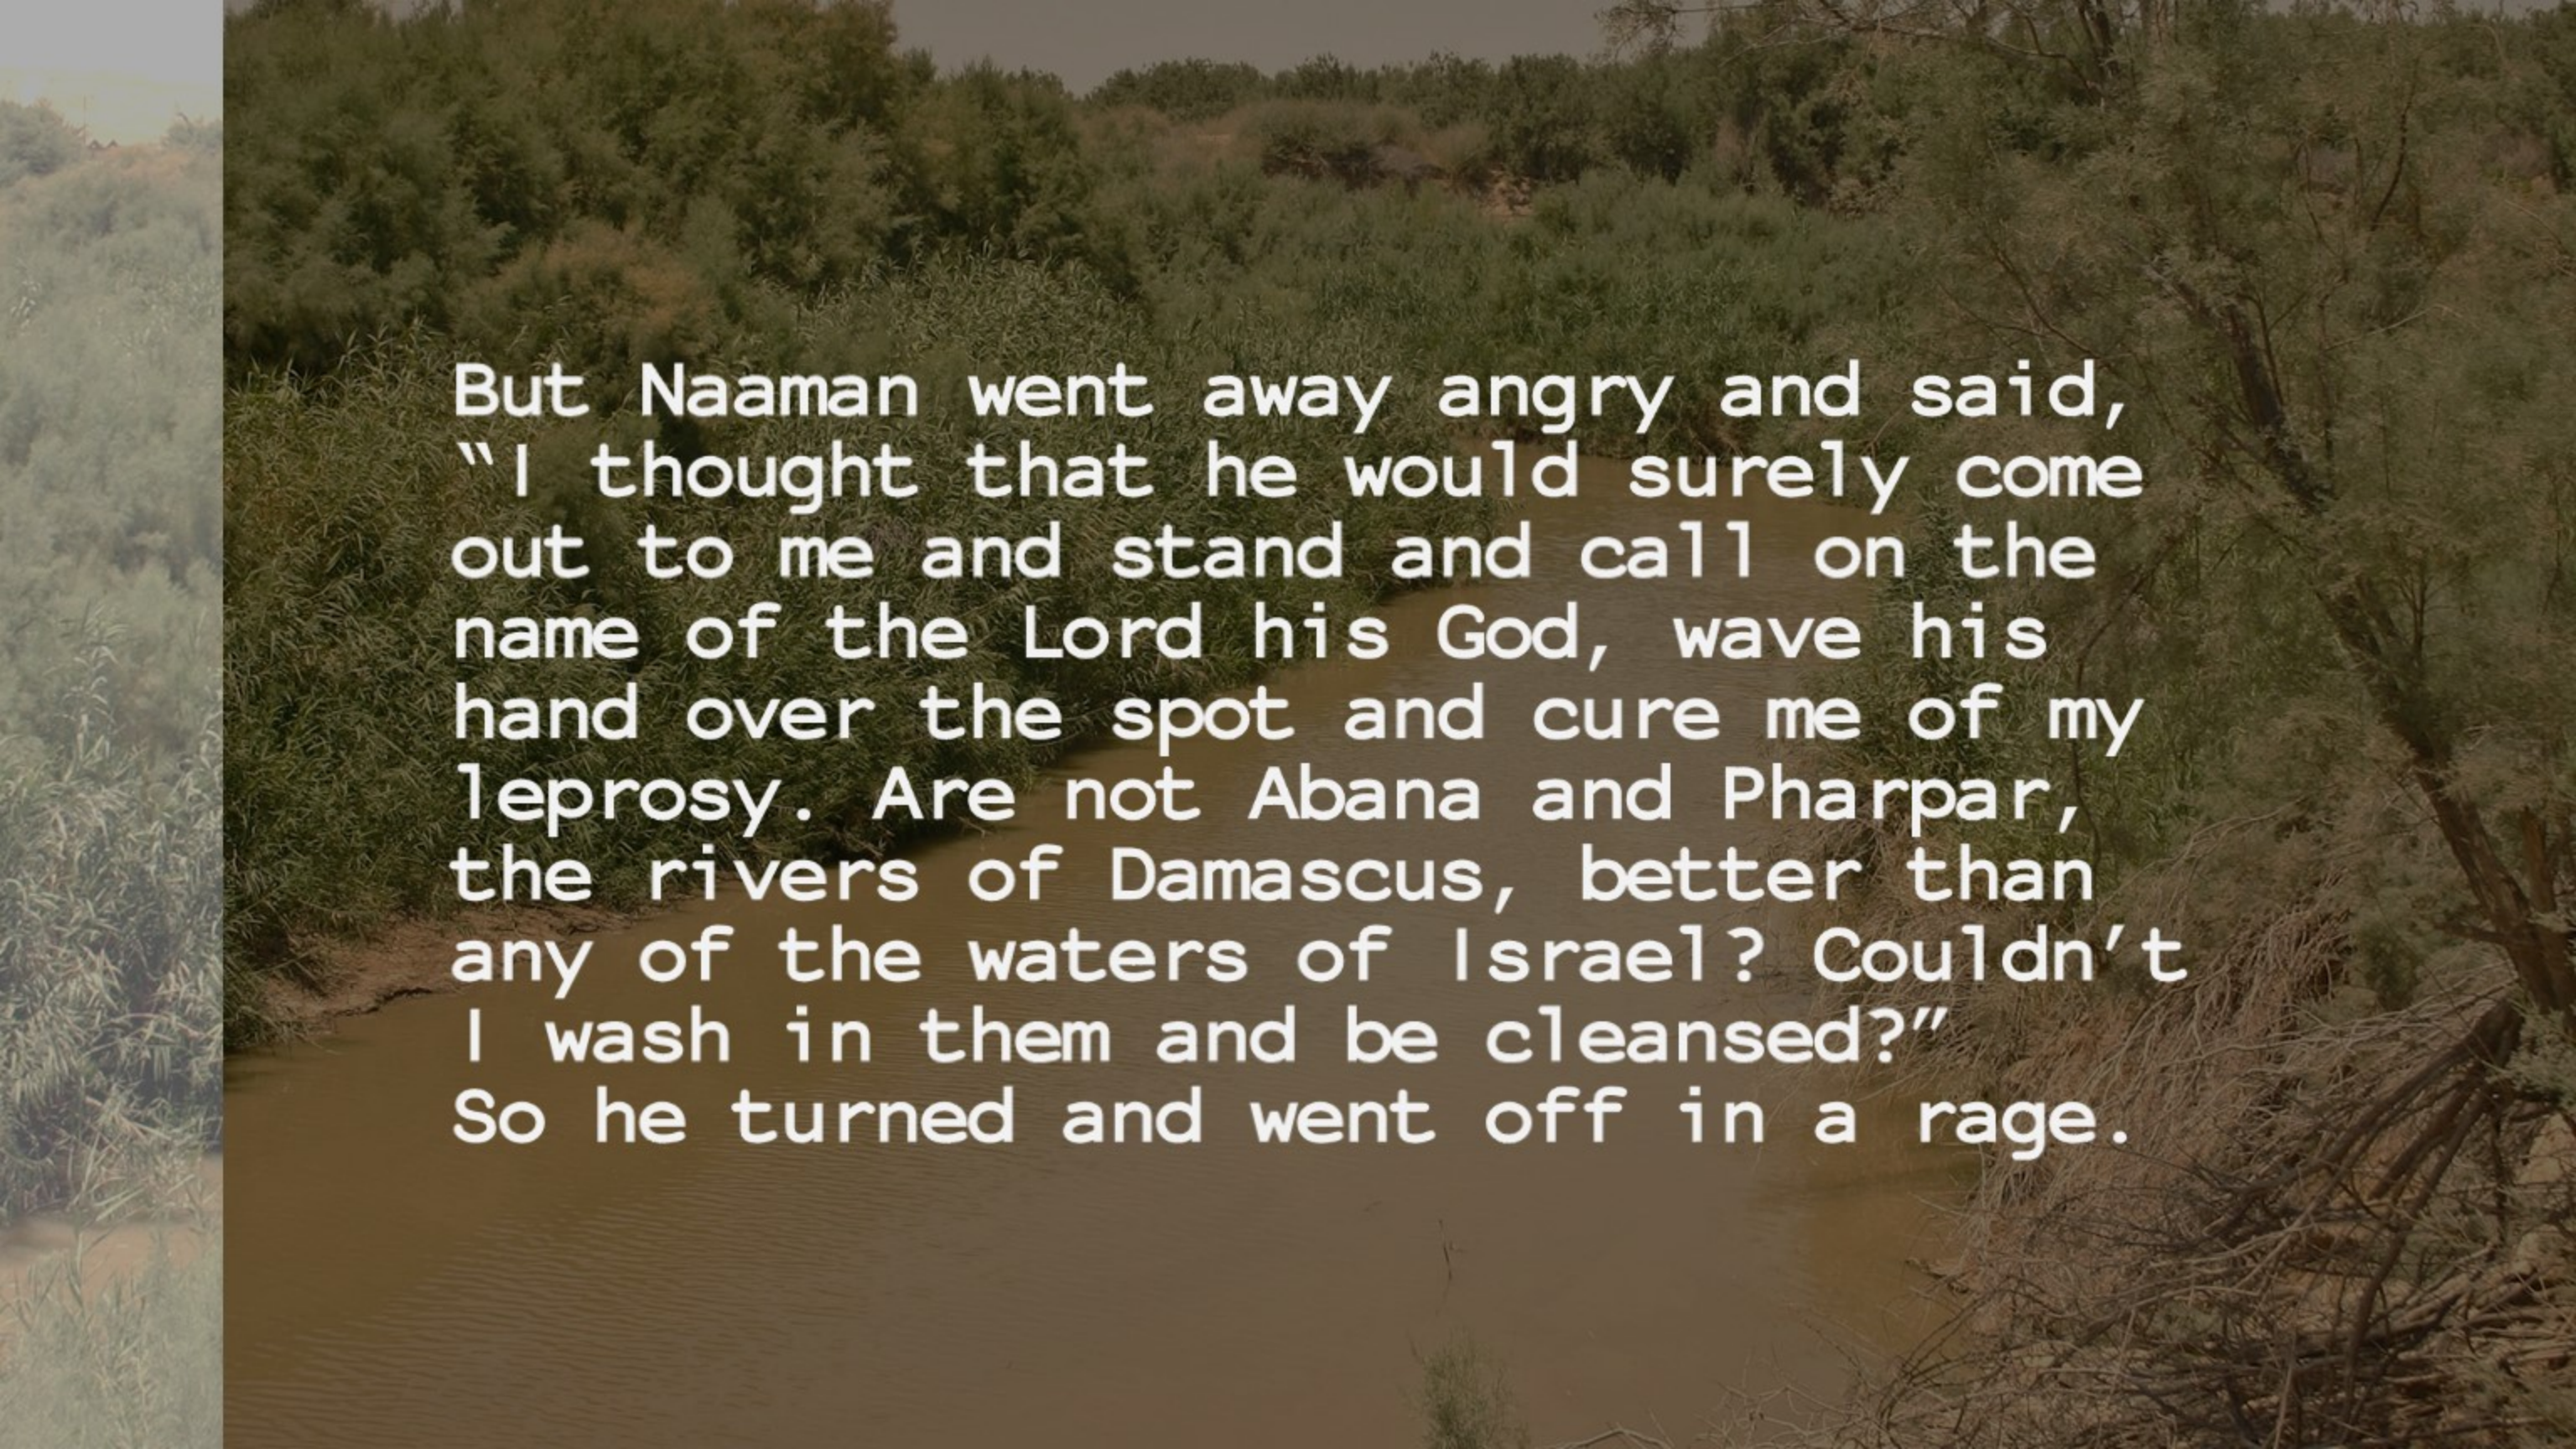

Naaman went to his master and told him what the girl from Israel had said. "By all means, go," the king of Aram replied. "I will send a letter to the king of Israel." So Naaman left, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold and ten sets of clothing. The letter that he took to the king of Israel read: "With this letter I am sending my servant Naaman to you so that you may cure him of his leprosy."

The background image shows a vast, hilly landscape. In the foreground, there are dry, yellowish-brown grasses and some green shrubs. A low stone wall runs across the middle ground. Beyond the wall, the terrain rises into rolling hills with patches of green vegetation and bare earth. In the distance, a body of water is visible, and the sky is filled with soft, white clouds. The overall tone is somewhat somber due to the muted colors and the overcast sky.

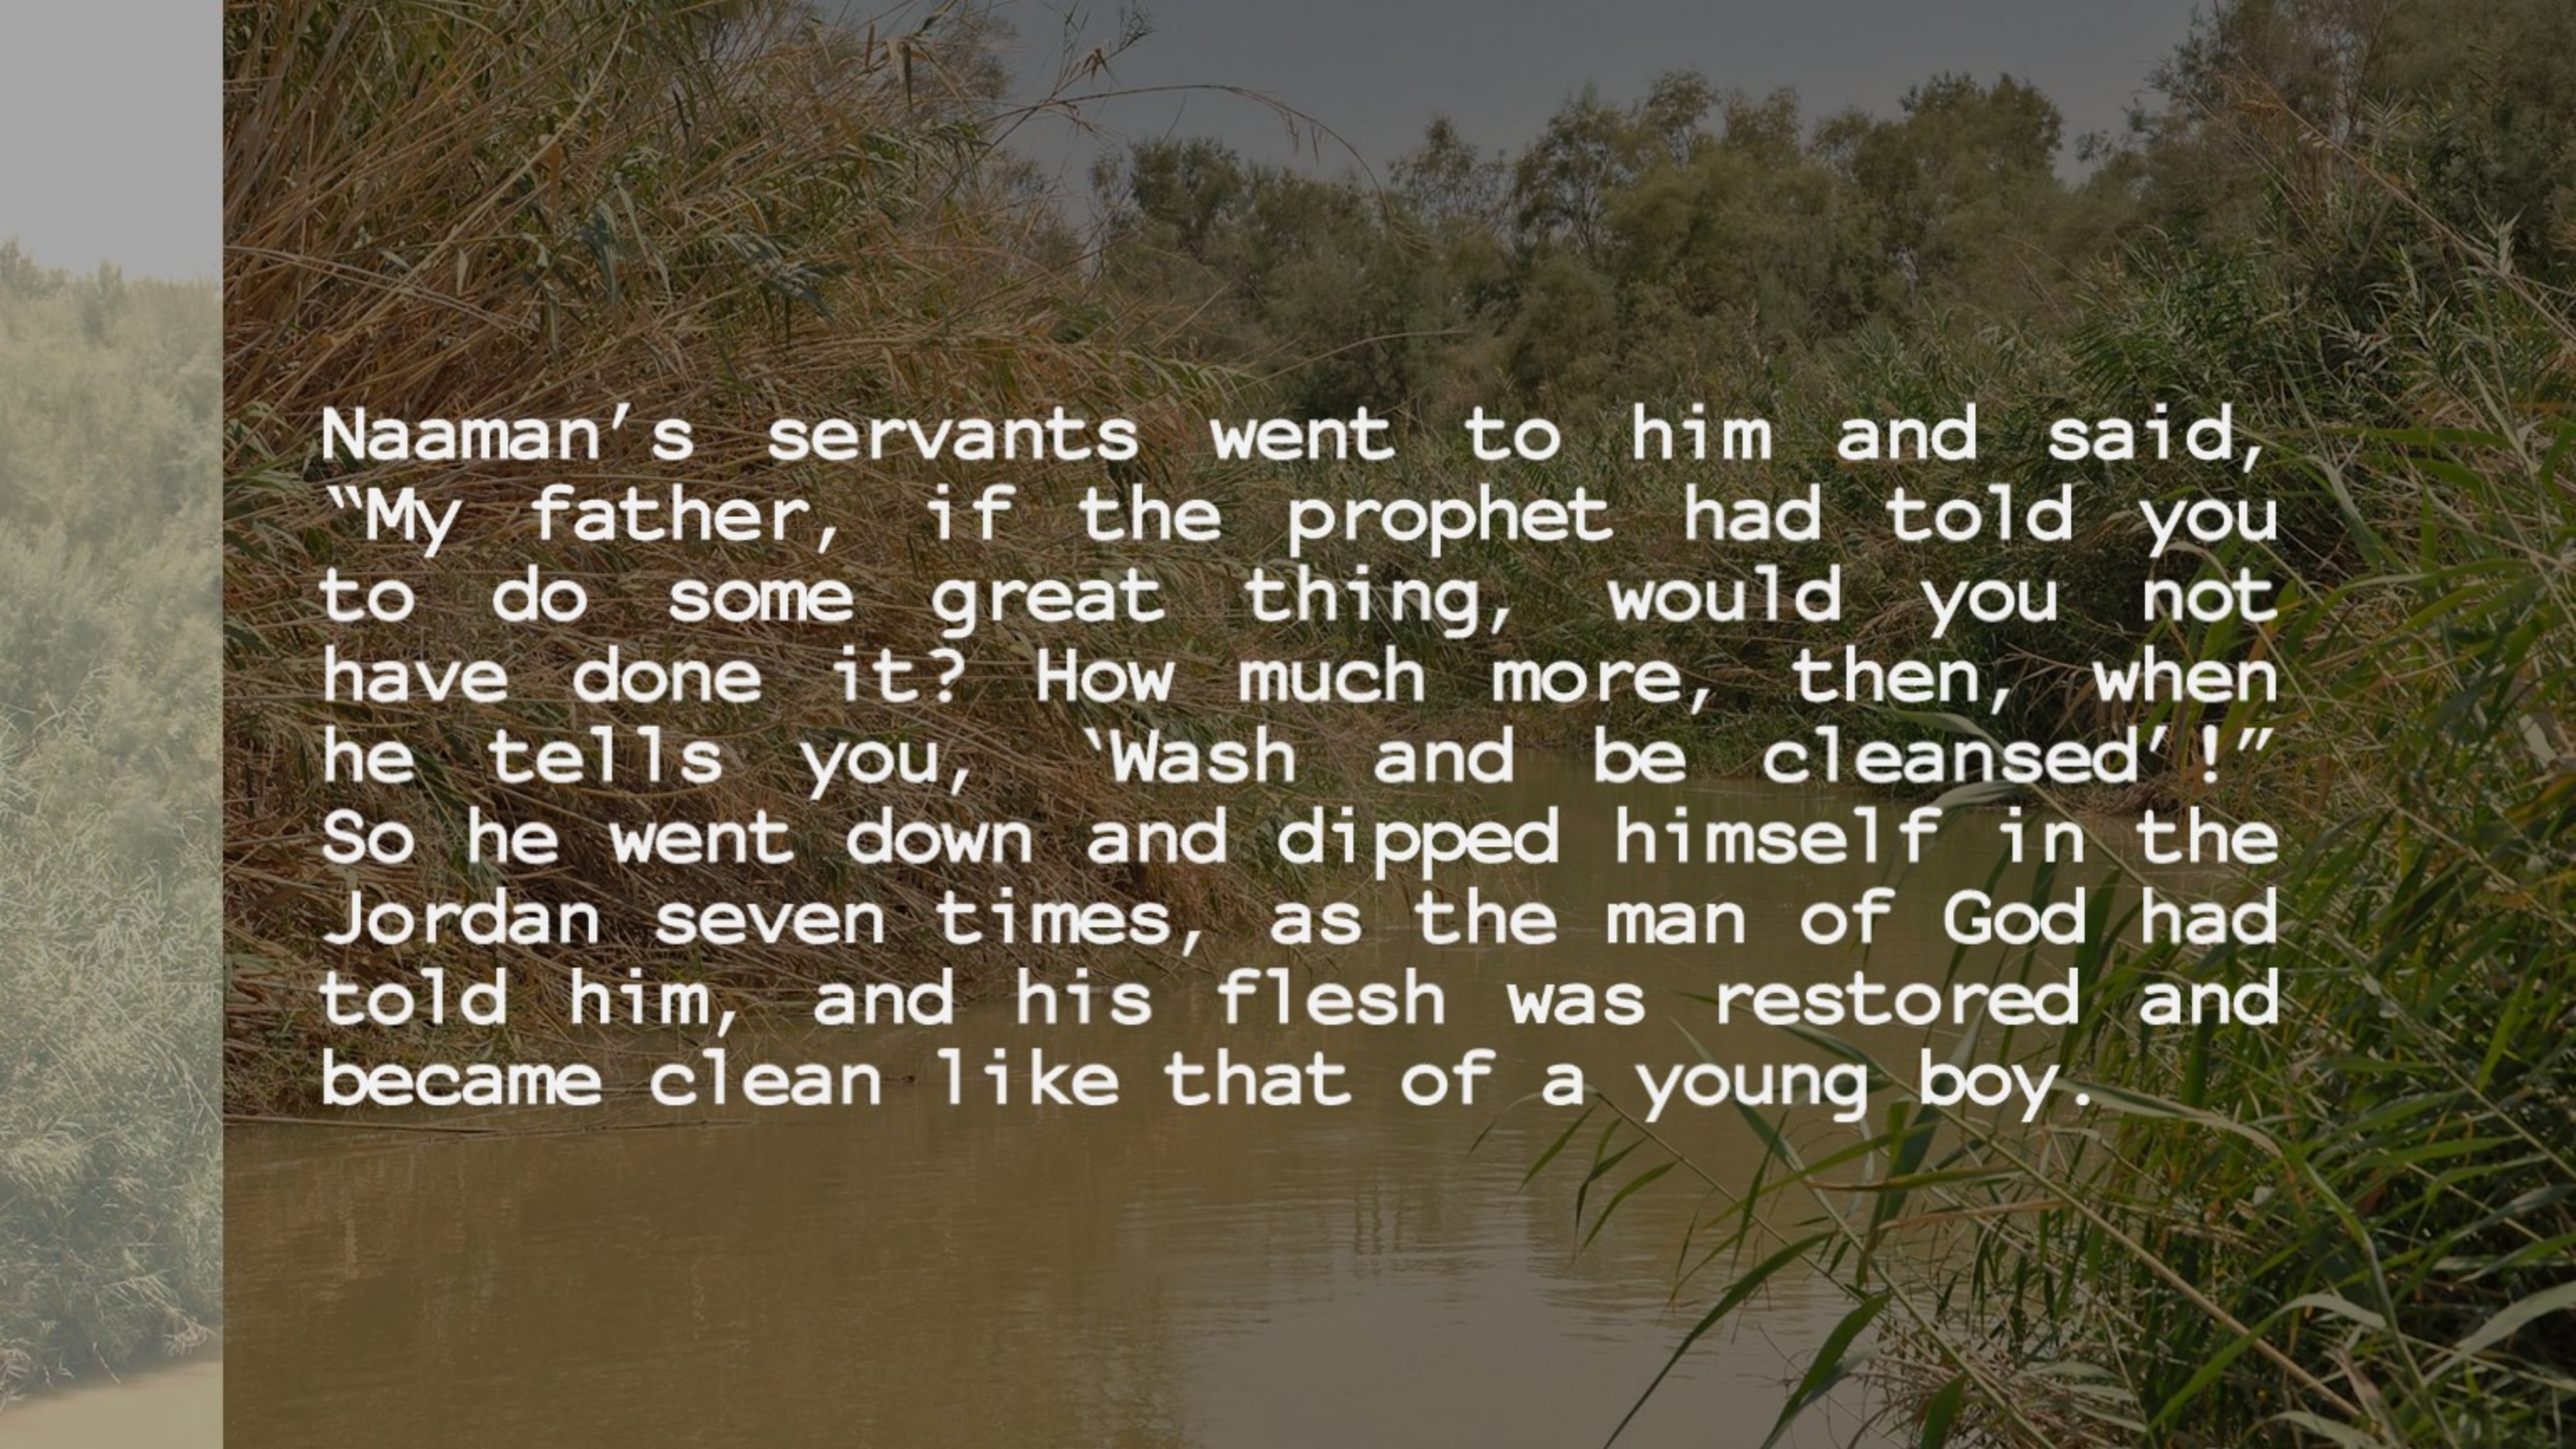

As soon as the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his robes and said, "Am I God? Can I kill and bring back to life? Why does this fellow send someone to me to be cured of his leprosy? See how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me!"

When Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his robes, he sent him this message: "Why have you torn your robes? Have the man come to me and he will know that there is a prophet in Israel." So Naaman went with his horses and chariots and stopped at the door of Elisha's house. Elisha sent a messenger to say to him, "Go, wash yourself seven times in the Jordan, and your flesh will be restored and you will be cleansed."

A scenic view of a river winding through a dense, green forest. The water is calm, reflecting the surrounding foliage. The banks are covered in thick vegetation, including tall grasses and various trees. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and natural.

But Naaman went away angry and said,
"I thought that he would surely come out to me and stand and call on the name of the Lord his God, wave his hand over the spot and cure me of my leprosy. Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than any of the waters of Israel? Couldn't I wash in them and be cleansed?"
So he turned and went off in a rage.

Naaman's servants went to him and said,
"My father, if the prophet had told you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much more, then, when he tells you, 'Wash and be cleansed'!"
So he went down and dipped himself in the Jordan seven times, as the man of God had told him, and his flesh was restored and became clean like that of a young boy.

THEN NAAMAN AND ALL HIS ATTENDANTS WENT BACK TO THE MAN OF GOD. HE STOOD BEFORE HIM AND SAID, "NOW I KNOW THAT THERE IS NO GOD IN ALL THE WORLD EXCEPT IN ISRAEL..."

-11 Kings 5:1-16
