Heb. 11

³² And what more shall I say? I do not have time to tell about Gideon, Barak, Samson and Jephthah, about David and Samuel and the prophets,

Heb. 11

³³ who through faith conquered kingdoms, administered justice, and gained what was promised; who shut the mouths of lions,

Heb. 11

³⁴ quenched the fury of the flames, and escaped the edge of the sword; whose weakness was turned to strength; and who became powerful in battle and routed foreign armies.

Heb. 11

³⁵ Women received back their dead, raised to life again. There were others who were tortured, refusing to be released so that they might gain an even better resurrection. ³⁶ Some faced jeers and flogging, and even chains and imprisonment.

Heb. 11

³⁷ They were put to death by stoning; they were sawed in two; they were killed by the sword. They went about in sheepskins and goatskins, destitute, persecuted and mistreated— ³⁸ the world was not worthy of them.

Heb. 11

They wandered in deserts and mountains,
living in caves and in holes in the ground.

³⁹ These were all commended for their faith,
yet none of them received what had been promised, ⁴⁰ since God had planned something better for us so that only together with us would they be made perfect.

Heb. 10.36

³⁶ You need to persevere so that when you have done the will of God, you will receive what he has promised.

Heb. 10.23

²³ Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful.
