

A first-person perspective from the driver's seat of a car, looking out over a two-lane asphalt road that stretches into the distance. The road is flanked by tall evergreen trees and some deciduous trees with yellow and orange autumn foliage. The sky is bright and clear. The car's dashboard and a hand on the steering wheel are visible in the foreground.

Psalm 32

Of David. A maskil.

whose transgressions are forgiven,
whose sins are covered.

Psalm 32

² Blessed is the one whose sin the LORD does not count against them
and in whose spirit is no deceit.

Psalm 32

³ When I kept silent,
my bones wasted away
through my groaning all day long.

Psalm 32

⁴ For day and night
your hand was heavy on me;
my strength was sapped
as in the heat of summer.

Psalm 32

⁵ Then I acknowledged my sin to you
and did not cover up my iniquity.
I said, "I will confess
my transgressions to the LORD."
And you forgave
the guilt of my sin.

Psalm 32

⁶ Therefore let all the faithful pray to you
while you may be found;
surely the rising of the mighty waters
will not reach them.

Psalm 32

⁷ You are my hiding place;
you will protect me from trouble
and surround me with songs of deliverance.

Psalm 32

⁸ I will instruct you and teach you in the way
you should go;
I will counsel you with my loving eye on you.

Psalm 32

⁹ Do not be like the horse or the mule,
which have no understanding but must be controlled by bit and bridle
or they will not come to you.

Psalm 32

¹⁰ Many are the woes of the wicked,
but the LORD's unfailing love surrounds the one who trusts in him.

Psalm 32

¹¹ Rejoice in the LORD and be glad, you
righteous;
sing, all you who are upright in heart!

A first-person perspective from the driver's seat of a car, looking out over a two-lane asphalt road that stretches into the distance. The road is flanked by dense forests of tall trees, many of which have turned vibrant shades of yellow and orange, indicating autumn. The sky is a pale, clear blue. In the foreground, the driver's hand is visible on the steering wheel, and the dashboard and part of the car's interior are visible at the bottom of the frame.
