

A first-person perspective from the driver's seat of a car, looking out over a two-lane asphalt road that stretches into the distance. The road is flanked by tall evergreen trees and some deciduous trees with yellow and orange autumn foliage. The sky is bright and clear. The car's dashboard and a hand on the steering wheel are visible in the foreground.

Psalm 1

Blessed is the one who does not walk in step with the wicked or stand in the way that sinners take

or sit in the company of mockers,

Psalm 1

<sup>2</sup> but whose delight is in the law of the LORD, and who meditates on his law day and night.

Psalm 1

<sup>3</sup> That person is like a tree planted by streams
of water,
which yields its fruit in season
and whose leaf does not wither—
whatever they do prospers.

Psalm 1

<sup>4</sup> Not so the wicked!
They are like chaff
that the wind blows away.

Psalm 1

<sup>5</sup> Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment,
nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.

Psalm 1

<sup>6</sup> For the LORD watches over the way of the righteous,
but the way of the wicked leads to destruction.
