Isaiah 22

<sup>20</sup> “In that day I will summon my servant, Eliakim son of Hilkiah. <sup>21</sup> I will clothe him with your robe and fasten your sash around him and hand your authority over to him. He will be a father to those who live in Jerusalem and to the people of Judah.

Isaiah 22

<sup>22</sup> I will place on his shoulder the key to the house of David; what he opens no one can shut, and what he shuts no one can open.

Isaiah 22

<sup>23</sup> I will drive him like a peg into a firm place; he will become a seat<sup>l</sup> of honor for the house of his father. <sup>24</sup> All the glory of his family will hang on him: its offspring and offshoots—all its lesser vessels, from the bowls to all the jars.

Isaiah 22

<sup>25</sup> “In that day,” declares the LORD Almighty, “the peg driven into the firm place will give way; it will be sheared off and will fall, and the load hanging on it will be cut down.” The LORD has spoken.

Isaiah 22

<sup>25</sup> “In that day,” declares the LORD Almighty, “the peg driven into the firm place will give way; it will be sheared off and will fall, and the load hanging on it will be cut down.”
The LORD has spoken.

Rev. 3

These are the words of him who is holy and true, who holds the key of David. What he opens no one can shut, and what he shuts no one can open.

2 Sam. 7

After the king was settled in his palace and the Lord had given him rest from all his enemies around him, <sup>2</sup> he said to Nathan the prophet, “Here I am, living in a house of cedar, while the ark of God remains in a tent.”

2 Sam. 7

<sup>3</sup> Nathan replied to the king, “Whatever you have in mind, go ahead and do it, for the Lord is with you.”

2 Sam. 7

<sup>4</sup> But that night the word of the Lord came to Nathan, saying:

<sup>5</sup> “Go and tell my servant David, ‘This is what the Lord says: Are you the one to build me a house to dwell in?’

2 Sam. 7

<sup>6</sup> I have not dwelt in a house from the day I brought the Israelites up out of Egypt to this day. I have been moving from place to place with a tent as my dwelling.

2 Sam. 7

<sup>7</sup> Wherever I have moved with all the Israelites, did I ever say to any of their rulers whom I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, “Why have you not built me a house of cedar?””

2 Sam. 7

<sup>8</sup> “Now then, tell my servant David, ‘This is what the Lord Almighty says: I took you from the pasture, from tending the flock, and appointed you ruler over my people Israel.

2 Sam. 7

<sup>9</sup> I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have cut off all your enemies from before you. Now I will make your name great, like the names of the greatest men on earth.

2 Sam. 7

<sup>10</sup> And I will provide a place for my people Israel and will plant them so that they can have a home of their own and no longer be disturbed.

2 Sam. 7

Wicked people will not oppress them anymore, as they did at the beginning <sup>11</sup> and have done ever since the time I appointed leaders over my people Israel. I will also give you rest from all your enemies. “The Lord declares to you that the Lord himself will establish a house for you:

2 Sam. 7

<sup>12</sup> When your days are over and you rest with your ancestors, I will raise up your offspring to succeed you, your own flesh and blood, and I will establish his kingdom.

2 Sam. 7

<sup>13</sup> He is the one who will build a house for my Name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. <sup>14</sup> I will be his father, and he will be my son. When he does wrong, I will punish him with a rod wielded by men, with floggings inflicted by human hands.

2 Sam. 7

<sup>15</sup> But my love will never be taken away from him, as I took it away from Saul, whom I removed from before you. <sup>16</sup> Your house and your kingdom will endure forever before me; your throne will be established forever.’”
