In tough seasons of life, prayer brings us great comfort and hope - but what about when God doesn't seem to answer those prayers? Can blessings arise from broken dreams? Our upcoming DBIC Women's Bible Study will focus on a book called "When God Doesn't Fix It" by Grammy Award-winning songwriter Laura Story. She seemed to have a fairy-tale life -- until her husband was diagnosed with a brain tumor. Tackling common myths about God and hardship, Story examines what happens when life doesn't turn out as we expect--and offers assurance that although our situation may never get better, we can grow because of it. Join the Wednesday morning group at the church from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. beginning

Jan. 15 or the Monday evening group at Jill Poole's house, from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., beginning Jan. 20.

The Mental Health First Aid class has been rescheduled and will take place on Saturday, May 2. Please contact the office if you would like to attend!

Ben & Eunice Stoner have been serving among the Navajo people of New Mexico for almost 50 years. Ben, a younger brother of our own Sam Stoner, is conversant in that very difficult language and has been instrumental in encouraging composition and use of worship music in the Navajo language and style. They have become close to a number of families and lead Bible studies and discipleship meetings in many homes. Come hear their story on Wednesday, January 22, at 6:30pm in Room B-1.

DBIC is hosting Family Promise from February 2-9. Information and online sign up links can be found at www.dillsburgbic.org/family-promise/ Contact Anne-Marie Brandt or Sarah Hoover with any questions.
