

Questions for Contemplation and Conversation

All by yourself, on a scale of 1-9 with 9 being the highest, rate the degree to which you hear God. Afterwards rate the degree to which you want to hear God. YOU DON'T NEED TO SHARE THIS!

Spend a moment praying about those numbers. Ask God what is his view, what might he have to say about it?

Main points from Today

Does it conform to what God says in the Bible?

Does it make me more like Jesus?

Do I have confirmation, particularly from my church family?

Does it have signs of being pure

peace-loving considerate

submissive

full of mercy

good fruit

impartial and sincere?

(You may want to discuss in group or with others how you understand those terms.)

If it is addressing sin, is it convicting (calling me out but drawing me closer) or condemning (calling me out and driving me away)?

It may be helpful to talk about your experiences of the difference between these two.

Do I have a sense of God's peace?

Is it in line with how God seems to be working in me at the moment?