

Questions for Conversation and Contemplation

OPTIONAL: You may want to talk about the George Floyd situation, the protests, and riots.

You may also want to avoid it, which suggests we ought to talk about it.

Any thoughts about what Pastor Hank shared?

Message

Rob said that as a society, we tend to avoid the idea of being a slave. Do you think that is accurate?

How should we put the ideas together of being freedom in Christ (or by Holy Spirit) and being a slave in Christ?

(Hint: I think marriage is a parallel image for us)

If you think of the Christian life as a surrendering to a person rather than a commitment to something, how might that change your spiritual life?

How does one become a slave?

Is it just a decision of the will?

If someone was determined to become a slave to Christ, what is the next thing he/she should do?

In your struggles with sin, do you feel that your issues are more a lack of freedom or more a result of not being a slave?
