

Questions for Conversation

The first part of this exercise is about us a Christians in general. The second part moves to discussing our personal Christian lives.

Have you watched The Chosen? What have you thought about it? Did you watch episode 7 with Nicodemus and the portrayal of John 3? What did you think?

How has God been speaking to you lately?

Rob said for as familiar as we are with the term “born again” we don’t seem to be very familiar with the implications of being born again. What do you think?

Paul says, if any man is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old is gone. The new is here. (2 Cor. 5.17)

Do you believe this?

Are we 50/50 new and old, or 80/20?

For some, there is a difference between how new we are and how new we live. How does this change your answer to the above?

Are we 100% new but only act like 50% new?

What would a 100% new life look like?

On a scale from 1-9 where 1 is the lowest obviously the lowest score, how would you rate yourself on this statement: I am new in Christ.

Why would you answer the way you did?

How do we go about perceiving the new work of God?

Before you are done as a group, speak into each other’s lives signs of newness that you see that perhaps the person doesn’t see him/herself.

An example lead-in is “a sign of Christ doing a new work in you that I see is . . .”
