

Questions for Conversations

Can anyone in the group do any impersonations? If yes, share them. If no, who is your favorite impersonator, and who do they do?

Rob shared several ways that Jesus is a restart of the creation story, at least in terms of humanity.

Were there any things in that list (comparing and contrasting Adam and Jesus) that you have not considered before or things that could have been added?

Re-read Rom 5.12-17, what questions does the passage bring up for you?

Some have suggested that this passage teaches that all will be saved. How would you make the argument from this passage? Look ahead and see how Rom. 6 prohibits that understanding.

How does the idea of Jesus starting a new humanity impact you?

Talk about the difference between impersonating and incarnating.

What do you think of the idea of communion as remembering and re-membering?

What is the work that God needs to do in your life to re-member you?

What is the work that God has to do in our church to re-member us all?

Share joys, needs, and concerns (leaders forward needs to deacons if they can assist).

Pray