

Questions for Conversations

Share a time when you were embarrassing late for something.

How has God been speaking to you lately?

Rob listed several qualities, aspects or actions of God in Gen. 1 in the message.

Are there ones you would add to the list?

It may be helpful to rehearse the list as you all remember. I am intentionally not providing a list for you.

Did one speak to you or stand out more than others today?

Why do you think that is?

Is there something happening in your life presently that God wanted to speak to?

If these things are true of God, how should we live?

What changes ought to occur in us to live in this reality?

How do we go about seeing these changes happen?

(First is always a new reliance on the Holy Spirit, but there seems to be a need for cooperation with the work of the Spirit)

You may want to brainstorm as a group. Sometimes when we are stuck we don't see a way forward, but others might.

How might we be holding each other accountable to living into these truths and making these changes?

Share joys and concerns.
