Ice-breaker (this first part is not supposed to get too deep)

The word idol is part of American cultural vocabulary. We have American Idol tv show. So and so is/was a “teen idol.” He is my idol.

Did you have any idols (in the American usage sense) growing up? Who and why?

Transition to the Heart of the Matter

Is our use of the term perfectly innocent or is it a little strange, maybe even revealing?

Do we as Christians make idols? How? Why do think that is?

What do you think of Rob’s main idea that we become like what we worship (we resemble what we revere)?

We have talked about core longings before. The list that Rob shared was love, safety, acceptance, to be understood, significance, and purpose. Is there anything you would add to or take away from the list?

What is God saying to you about idols?

Share joys and concerns, triumphs and failures.
