What was your favorite childhood game to play with others outside?

(you may have to BRIEFLY explain how it was played if people aren't familiar with it)

Why was it so enjoyable?

How has God been speaking to you lately?

What has he been saying?

What part(s) of the joint retelling of the Jonah story caught you by surprise?

What element did you forget or not know?

If you could only pick one, Is it more wrong, sad, or dangerous to be like Jonah?

(to know God, but to not share God)

In what way might you be guilty of the "Spirit of Jonah"?

In what way might we as a church be guilty of the "Spirit of Jonah"?

Rob suggested that since the time of creation, God has been playing Red Rover.

What do you think of that?

Who might God be wanting you to call to "come on over"?

What is the biggest obstacle for you from doing that? (inexperience, don't know how, fear of rejection, apathy, etc)

Share joys and concerns.

Pray (remember to pray for our county and the election)
