

Questions for Conversations

What was your best Christmas gift ever? Why was it so meaningful?

Last week, we lit the candle of hope. Where did you find hope or need hope this past week?

How did you work at celebrating or living out the fact and the joy that you have been reconciled to God?

Re-read John 17 together.

What jumps out at you?

Does the fact that this is a prayer make any difference to you? Why or why not?

There is an emphasis on unity (between the Father and Jesus, between God and us, and between us).

How can we be one?

Is it something God does, we do, a combination?

If we are involved in any way, what can we do to promote Christian unity.

Is there someone that comes to mind right now, that you need to pray for and/or work for unity with?

Where, when, how have you encountered God's glory?

What have you been given?

If Rob is right that the love between Father, Son, and Holy Spirit is manifested in this ongoing giving to one another, what might Christ be calling you to give, if you are to be like him?

Share joys and concerns and pray.
