Ushers needed: There is a need for more ushers once we return to worshipping in person in the building. Ushers are mainly helping people to locate seats and counting the number of people in their assigned area. You would be asked to arrive 30 minutes before the service begins, but there is no need to stay after the service. Please consider volunteering to serve in this position! Contact Mark Kimmel or any usher to learn more.

Please tear off and place in the offering basket at the end of the service
