Have you ever been in a boat or in the ocean and felt tossed by the waves? What was it like?

Why does James tell his readers to celebrate trials?

How do you think that letting patience or endurance have its full effect result in our being whole (lacking nothing)?

Have you ever had a time when that was true? (Letting endurance have its full effect).

Rob suggested that wisdom is seeing things God's way. What do you think about that idea? Where is it right, wrong, or missed something?

Rob explained the "asking without doubting" part in a particular way. Do you think he is right? How does this help?

In life we have troubles. We are all always coming out of a storm, heading into one, or waiting for one. Where are you?

What do you need to know about God or hang onto about his character?

Share – Prayer (as part of prayer, ask for the Holy Spirit to teach you (give you wisdom) or remind you about God's character so that you can endure.)
