

Questions for Conversations

042521

What are some strange words or definitions?

They don't even have to be real words, maybe something you say in your family or geographic area.

For example: Where I (Rob) grew up my mom would say, "you need to red-up your room," or at harvest time we when we were going to freeze corn for the winter we were going to my grandparents "to put-up corn."

What do you think about Rob's statement, Meaning is given by the one who gets to define?

How might your life look differently if you allowed God to define?

Where in your life have you been living by definitions that have been handed to you or forced upon you rather than God's definition?

Right now in your life, are you more experiencing the gates of Hades or the transforming power of God?

Are there things you need to check in with each other about from past weeks?

Share and prayer.

Think about the lyrics of our closing song today,

'Cause I am found. I am Yours.

I am loved. I'm made pure.

I have life. I can breathe.

I am healed. I am free.

Pray that God can help you live in the reality of those truths.

Pray that God can teach you to help others experience or live in the reality of those truths.