What is (was) your greatest fear? Is there an experience that started it for you?
Has that changed over time?

It is hard to enter into this story since we are on this side of Easter, but try to do it.

What would you be doing if you were a disciple? Praying, crying, bailing, waking Jesus up?

Rob suggested that it is easy to misunderstand what God is doing in a given situation. Do you think that is right? If yes, what should our response or habit be then?

How we be confident as Christians if we aren't sure what God is up to?

What do you think of the connections Rob suggested between the storm passage in Mark 4 and the deliverance passage in Mark 1? (Destroyed, Be Muzzled, Amazed to the Point of Terror, that other things (demons, wind and waves) obey)

Spend some time thinking about Jesus' question, What are you afraid of?

What application do you think God would have you make from Mark 4?

Share and prayer.
