What was the worst punishment that you received as a child?

If you feel comfortable answering, what did you do that caused you to get punished?

Do you think the punishment was fair?

When you think about the fact that God will judge, how does that make you feel?

What should a Christian response be to the news that God will judge?

Do you agree with Rob, that in Romans 1 the issue of wrath seems to be connected to the failure to give God glory and to give thanks to God?

Rob suggested that Romans 2 teaches us that while God judges, we don't get to. How do you distinguish between discerning (which we are called to do) and judging (which we are called to not do)?

What practice of thankfulness might you begin this week, that would help your heart and those around you?
