What questions or observations do you have from today's message?

If no one or few people share, how has God been reaching out to you recently?

Have you ever thought about Jesus as a New Moses?

What are some of the implications of that idea?

If people struggle with the last one, another way at this is - how does thinking of him as a New Moses change/add to what we think of Jesus?

How does your thinking about communion change if you focus on the connection to manna rather than Passover?

Do you agree with the connection Rob made between Peace and Gratitude?

How easy do you think going a week without complaining will be?

Where do you need to celebrate, remember, and practice the truth the God Has Come Through, So God Will Come Through?
