

Questions for Conversations

01.02.22

How has the gratitude efforts been going?

How has God been speaking to you recently?

What questions do you have about today's message?

What were your thoughts about Rob's comments about the rapture?

How does the idea that I Thes. 4 is describing a royal entourage challenge, enhance, or aid your understanding of Christ's return?

How does the image of death as sleep, contribute to or correct our understanding of death from God's perspective?

If you feel comfortable, you may discuss the support group. (I am not sure that going into the LGBTQ issue(s) itself will be helpful to the group).

Regardless of whether you discuss the group, please pray for the leadership of the group – that the right people will be in the right places, that those who need to come, will come, that we are at all times responsive to the direction of the Spirit.

If you need more, I may or may not include some of the grammatical details in the passage.

.14 those who have fallen asleep "through Jesus"

.14 (Christ) will bring "with him"

.15-16 those who have fallen asleep "because of him" (part of the indication that persecution is an issue)

.17 "with the Lord."
