

Questions for Conversations

02.20.22

How has any of the things you have tried or committed to in the past weeks been going?

How has God been speaking to you lately?

What questions do you have about this week's message?

How would you define pride that is sin?

What are some signs of a healthy self-image (not proud or self-loathing)?

What might we do to help the young people in our families or church find that sweet spot?

Where do you still struggle with earning God's pleasure?

This question is not about what is your biggest sin you are struggling with. It is about why do you find it hard to live in the reality that God is very fond, actually pretty wild about you (assuming that you struggle with this like most of us)?

How does the problem of pride manifest itself in you?

Rob suggested that the people who irritate us most tend to be people who resemble us the most. Do you agree? Why might that be?

Think about the most annoying person in your life right now. Allow God to speak to you about his truth. What might he be shining light on? (Don't have to share this one, but spend time on it).

Share and prayer.

"To be taken with love for a soul, God does not look upon its greatness, but upon the greatness of its humility." - St. John of the Cross
