

Questions for Conversations

042422

How has God been speaking to you recently?

What questions do you have about the message?

Of the following (for now, you must pick one of the following) what is your greatest struggle living on this side of the BUT?

Forgetting to live like the battle is over

Forgetting to live like the mop-up operation remains (and that it is serious and deadly).

Forgetting who the real enemy is

What other struggles do you (or Christians in general) have, living on this side of the BUT?

What might a process of De-Satanification look like?

[Through the force of love, showing that the worldview of this world is empty, life-consuming rather than life giving, and that it leads nowhere]

Since we last talked, have you had a spiritual conversation with someone outside our church community – learning about their beliefs and sharing your own?

If the answer is NO, who might you speak to this week?

Right now in whatever state I'm in or stage of life I'm in, what does it mean for me to be delivered from the fear of death?

What is something you can do to respond?

How can we help?

Share and prayer.
