

Questions for Conversations

05.22.22

How has God been speaking to you recently?

What has he been saying?

How does being baptized IN the Spirit change your understanding of what has happened?

When was the last time you waited for the LORD?

What do you make of the similarities Rob pointed out between the resurrection story and Christ's ascension?

How are you "looking" at (fixing your gaze) on something that could be a distraction?

Share and Prayer

Along with sharing joys and concerns, take time to pray especially for new encounters of the Holy Spirit, that we all would know his power and that our motivation to tell his story would increase.
