

Questions for Conversations

How has God been speaking to you lately? What has he been saying?

In the message, Rob said that the two steps to being more like Stephen (and like Christ) is to spend more time with God and continually surrender.

What does that look like in your life, right now?

Rob said that one of, if not the greatest test of our sanctification (conformity to Christ) is how we handle adversity and trouble. Do you agree with that?

Think of some recent trouble in your life. How did you react? What might that say about your progress?

This kind of message often makes us aware of our short-comings. While we certainly need to be aware of them, we also want to remember the work that God has done. I am half the Christian that I ought to be, but twice the Christian I used to be. Spend some time giving thanks for what God has done in your life.

How can we encourage one another in this journey of spending more time with God and surrendering more?
