Have you ever had an unexpected detour on a trip that ended up being really great? Explain

Rob said that we need to be grateful because of the lengths God will go to reach us. Do you have a sense of a time when the details of your life were arranged just right?

Rob said that we are to be the length God will go to for others. What might that mean for you this week?

What do you think of Rob's hints at God's leading? What is missing or what would do you question?

Is it biblical? Will it bring him glory?

Is it a little scary?

Is it a little crazy? Does it involve some kind of a leap (radical trusting) or is it counter my natural thinking?

Is it inconvenient to me?

Does it make me smaller or bigger?

I think it is important to think about the following questions at both an individual level and a corporate level, but we should not let the corporate discussion distract us from application to our personal lives

When was the last time you did (or we as a church did) something for God that was a little scary?

When was the last time you did (or we as a church did) something for God that was a little crazy?

When was the last time you did (or we as a church did) something for God that was inconvenient?

When was the last time you did (or we as a church did) something for God that made us smaller and him bigger?
