

Questions for Conversations

Many times, we church-goers have somewhat tame testimonies of coming to Christ, relatively speaking.

What is the most radical change story you know? It could be someone in the group sharing his/her story or someone else's testimony that you have heard about. If it you are sharing someone's story and it is someone people will know personally, make sure it is okay for you to share it. (The I AM SECOND website has a number of stories).

When was the last time you sensed God say Get Up And Go?

What was it about?

Would you have gone if you were Ananias? BE HONEST!

Application Points:

A usable vessel . . .

Knows God

Obeys even when risky

Speaks proleptically

What might this look like? How might we do this? Are there dangers or times when it would be good/helpful?
