Who is the most famous person you have ever met?

Do you remember the feelings of meeting him/her? What was it like?

If God wanted to teach you that he was no respecter of persons (face-receiver), who might he use to teach you that or what kind of person might he use to teach that to you? Who would you say is away from God?

(This is tricky point. Don't hear what I am not saying. God is certainly not a face-receiver, but this week's text also teaches that God does take into account those who are seeking him.)

Command and Control is a fundamental concept in military endeavors. Rob suggested that it was a theme in today's passage.

In what ways are they expressed in today's passage?

Who is in command?

Who has control?

How are they exercised?

What might be saying to you today about command and control?

Do you agree with Rob that Acts 10 is really another Pentecost – this time with Gentiles?

2 Weeks ago, you were asked who might the one God wants you to "find."

Any takers on the challenge? Any stories to share?
