If you do, are you willing to share any of them for this year?

Rob's points about Union with God (Us with God) was

Identification, Participation, and Position

Which of those is most familiar to you?

Which of those was the newest idea to you? Which had you not thought about or thought much about?

Which of those ideas excites you the most or stretches you the most?

Do you think it is fair to suggest that our intimacy with God is connected to how much we understand ourselves to be In Him?

Rob shared a passage from Rankin Wilbourne's book Union with Christ. How would you go about living differently if you discovered your new (to you) identity?

How might you go about that in your spiritual life?

How could we help each other live out our new (to us) identity?

Share and Prayer

What needs have arisen since we last connected?

What joys have you experienced?
