

Questions for Conversations

01.15.23

How has God been speaking to you recently? What has he been saying?

What questions did you have about this week's message?

Which of the three types of joy mentioned do you think John the Baptist had in John 3?

- 1) Response to life's blessings
- 2) In contrast to sorrow or distress
- 3) Disposition that is manifested in the midst of sorrow or distress.

Which do you think is harder. . .

To remember to be joyful when things go well

To wait for God to do his work that will result in joy

To have joy in the midst of trouble.

Do you agree with Rob that a central (if not the central) issue in have JtB's joy is the presence of God?

Among the things that Rob claimed JtB kept straight, which is easiest and hardest for you?

Knowing who he was

Knowing who Jesus (God) was/is

Recalling that God delights in being with us

How can you help each other grow in your awareness, experience, and expectation of God's presence?
