What makes you laugh?

When was the last time you had a good belly laugh?

What do you think about the idea of sharing in Christ's suffering?

Are there certain kinds of suffering that is true for, or all human suffering?

Which of Rob's points in the Theology of Joy speaks to you most? Why do you think that is?

- He is the source of joy.
- He delighted in creating us.
- He delights in forgiving us.
- He delights in saving us.
- He delights in being with us.
- He has absorbed our sufferings into his own.
- He has offered his joy to us even now.

Which of them is hardest for you to believe (by which I mean, live like it is true)?
