How has God been speaking to you lately? What has he been saying?

What questions do you have about this week's message?

Rob began the message stating that Jesus was ultimately about God's kingdom. How does this adjust/enhance/challenge your understanding of Christ's purpose?

What is the Kingdom of God?

In what way(s) is it near?

Do you think of the nearness of the kingdom more in terms of spatial or chronological proximity?

Why do you think that is?

What might repentance look like as it relates to the Kingdom of God?

This sounds theoretical and theological, but I mean it to be practical.

Testimony time: What changes has God done in your life?

What is your John Newton story, even if only to a small degree?

If you are like Rob, and want to see more personal transformation, what might you need to repent (think differently) of? What do you need to believe (celebrate and live into) more?

What is a concrete step that you can take to repent and believe more?

Any check-ins that need to occur regarding things shared in past weeks?
