

Questions for Conversations

043023

Rob gave the opportunity (or at least planned on giving the opportunity) to ask questions about the Bible. Do you have any questions about the Bible in general?

Do you have any questions about this week's message?

Is there any way that God spoke to you during the message? What was he saying?

If you were to write something about God's revelation in nature, what would you write about (Ps 19 author looked to the sun).

If you were to expand on the teaching of the beauty and wonder of God's instruction (Torah), what would you say? The _____ of the LORD is _____, _____ing the _____.

How do we keep ourselves from becoming "disenchanted"?

How should we think about the "sources of theology" individually and how they relate to one another?
