

Questions for Conversations

050723

What is the best worship experience you have ever had? (If you are stumped, it could be just the first one that comes to your mind as you hear the question)

Rob gave some help, but how would you understand all of the adjectives used in the denomination's statement?

Heartfelt

God-honoring

Spirit-directed

Life-changing

Realizing that any guess has as much chance of being right as the next, how do you understand worship that is "in spirit and truth"?

Have we ever focused on the externals of worship to the detriment of encountering Jesus?

What steps can you take tomorrow to become a better worshiper?

How has the Bible reading been going this week?

Share and prayer.