What was the longest trip you have ever taken?

Was there anything you had to entrust to someone else for the trip to take place (pets, plants, kids, house, etc.)?

What questions do you have about this week's message?

Do you think Tozer or Lewis is correct about the most important thing about us?

Spend some time thinking deeply and sharing honestly about how you think about God. Do you ever think about God judging? Do you ever stop thinking about God judging? Do you believe God delights in you? Have you ever "felt" or sensed his delight? Explain.

What do you think about Rob's idea that the talents in this week's parable could be understood as secrets of the Kingdom of God that Jesus revealed to his disciples?

Do you think the third servant got treated fairly or not? Why or why not?

Discuss practical ways that you can begin to live into the reality of the return of Christ and to hold each other accountable to that end?

Is there any catch-up or check-in about past commitments or needs that ought to occur?

Share and prayer.
