What questions did you have about this week's message?

Rob mentioned 3 points from Eccl. 3 that he said make the most sense if God exists.

Satisfaction in work.

In terms of financial jobs, how satisfied are you (or were you if retired or currently unemployed) with your work?

For everyone, what WORK are you doing now (regardless of the money it makes you)? (raising my kids or grandkids, serving as a volunteer, etc.)

What does it mean for you to take satisfaction in work?

Eccl 3 said satisfaction in work was a gift from God. Does it always feel that way? What can you do to change that perspective?

Eternity in our hearts.

What can you do (as an individual or together) to move further in the direction of treasuring the unseen and eternal above the visible and temporal?

To what extent does your practices reveal your true priorities versus your professed priorities?

Rob mentioned that our sense of the wrongness of death is an example of eternity in our hearts,

What do you think about that?

Can you think of other examples of eternity within our hearts?

Beauty

What is the most beautiful thing you have experienced?

Do you think that beauty points us to God?

How convincing is beauty to you?

How might we make the world more beautiful or help those around us see the world's beauty more clearly and regularly?
