

Questions for Conversations

What questions do you have about this week's message?

Rob said he thinks that maybe call and 3 and 4 are tied for 3rd. What is your thought? How is the call to connect with other Christians related to the call to make disciples (and particularly evangelize)?

How might you go about living a "questionable life" this week? What might you do or say that might give rise to a question in someone's mind?

Who might you SHOW the good news to this week?

Hospitality is a wonderful way to SHOW. Who can you demonstrate hospitality to?

Who might you TELL the good news to this week?

What is your deepest fear about this (why don't we do it more)?

Prayer Ministry Questions

1. Take some time to reflect on how God used people to introduce you to Christ. Who were those people? What can you do to make yourself a more usable instrument through which Christ can reveal himself?
2. Take a walk around your neighborhood. What do you see that tells you something about your neighbors and their needs?
3. As you continue developing a relationship with your neighbor, start asking yourself this question: "What area, what concern, what question in my friend's life is most in need of the presence of Jesus?"
4. Have you ever told God he can interrupt you? If God wanted to send you somewhere to someone, could he find room in your schedule?
