How has God been speaking to you recently?

What has he been saying? How can we help each other hear God more clearly?

Rob talked about Church history today (perhaps too much).

He suggested that God renews things every so often. How much are you in need of a renewal (on a scale of 1-100)

This week's emphasis on holiness is God's complete otherness, and set-apartness. How do you begin to get your mind around that?

Rob suggested that God's holiness is among the most core aspects of who God is. What do you think about that?

Rob's points of application were

Be Open to God revealing himself to you

Be Prepared for your Knees to Knock

Be Silent in Self-Awareness

Be Quick to Repent

Be Amazed at Forgiveness

Be At-One With God

Be Different

Be Ready to Go

Was there one of these that God was nudging you about more than the others? What do you think that is about? What are you going to do about it?

Any past check-ins that need to be done.
