Of the problems of sin that Rob mentioned, which do you think is most serious?

- Results in guilt.
- Creates illicit attachments
- Corrupts our God-given imagination
- We know exile instead of home

What might some other problems of sin be?

What are some practical way to walk out Christ's solution to the above list?

We can and will disagree with what we feel about the legality of people being in the US illegally, but what should our sense of exile mean about how we (as Christians, not as Americans) treat those who are here as exiles?
