What Are We Waiting For?

Revelation 17-19

1. If time allows, read through these chapters of Revelation again. What stands out to you? What is confusing? What is exciting?
2. What do you think about the connection between Babel and Babylon? How does going back to Genesis (to the beginning) help us understand Revelation (the end)?
3. Babylon the Great declares: "I am queen on my throne." Who is reigning on the throne of your heart? How are you tempted to define good and evil for yourself?
4. The people of the earth grieve over the fall of Babylon. What are you grieving over? What does your grief reveal about where your hope lies?
5. What would it look like for you to "come out" and "come away" from the kingdom of Babylon, the kingdoms of the earth?
6. Jesus claims his victory over evil by arriving as the Lamb that was slain. How can we follow the example and posture of the Lamb this week?
