Do you drive to church? Deacons are looking for a few volunteers to take a monthly shift providing Sunday morning transportation. Contact Rachel Miller for more information if you think you might be able pick up some local friends on your way to church!

Farmers Fair volunteers needed next weekend: At DBIC, we strive to be a light to our community. One of the most concentrated efforts we make each year is to serve at Dillsburg's annual Farmer's Fair. There are several easy ways that you can share the love of Jesus with our town. None of them require a ton of time or skill. Sign up on the sign-up sheet at www.dillsburgbic.org/farmers-fair/ and consider helping us shine Christ's light.

Final week: Peace Promise Run for Freedom The opportunity to help Peace Promise continues through Sun. Oct. 19. The in-person event is over, but if you'd like to participate may still choose to create or join a team to raise money and do their run/walk together on their own. You can register at:

October Church-Wide Journey

"Thirsty: A 31-Day Journey to Personal Revival"

This October, we're inviting everyone in our church family to join us on a meaningful spiritual journey through the book Thirsty: A 31-Day Journey to Personal Revival. This interactive prayer devotional focuses on 31 key areas of our Christian walk—one for each day of the month. Each day offers an opportunity to reignite a specific part of your relationship with Jesus and invite Him to bring fresh life and revival to your heart. Books are available in both the Fellowship Hall and the Narthex. We encourage you to pick one up, dive in, and see how God moves in your life!

Let's pursue revival together—one day at a time.

The church nursery is open during the 10:00 a.m. worship service for children ages 0-4 (any kids not yet in kindergarten). You can sign in your children in the nursery room (next to the library) and pick them up after the service.

Welcome Guests!

To better connect with you, we encourage you to email us at connect@dillsburgbic.org.
