What questions do you have about this week's message?

Have you ever experienced God do something that is unexplainable apart from God?
Maybe something you did not even pray for? Explain.

What does God want you to forget about (BOTH bad and good)?

What does he want you to stop/put off/quit?

How might that make room for then new?

If there are things we are NOT supposed to dwell on, it means that there are things that we ARE. What does he want you to dwell on?

What does God want you to put on/start?

What does God want you to perceive (pay attend to)

Where are doors open/closed?

What does God want you to simply BEHOLD?

Consider memorizing Is. 43.1 together.

Of all of the parts of the verse, what speaks to you most right now?

Listen to God?

Don't be afraid?

1 of the 4 descriptors of God?
