

Questions for Conversations

020123

What questions do you have about this week's message?

Which are you most grateful for today? That Christ is Eve's hope

- For a solution for our guilt
- For a remedy for our shame
- For bringing good from the curse(s)
- For final victory over evil, death, and sin
- For a return to home

What would it look like if shame became a bridge to God rather than creating a chasm between you and God?

What would it take for you to think about or experience shame differently?

What do you think about the enmity between humanity and evil? What would the world look like if he did cause us to be repulsed by evil?

What do you think God wants you to do with this message?

- Increased gratitude
- Increased vulnerability and transparency (as appropriate)
- Keep the final victory and real enemy in focus.
- Get homesick

Share and prayer.
