

Questions for Conversations

02.22.26

What questions do you have about this week's message?

What do you think about Rob's idea that Abraham got an important question right but that he may have missed another one?

- Do you know God?
- Do you want to know God?
- Do you think God is more ready to be merciful to others than he is to you?
- Do you trust God?
- What situation(s) are you facing that you cannot make sense of, where there are no guarantees of safety or even of a future and yet God is asking you to trust him?
