What question do you have about this week's message?

What do you think about all of the "syn-" verbs Rob mentioned? What should we be catching by Paul's grammar choice?

What do you think about the idea that sin is a cosmic power not just a personal, individual act? What are the implications of this idea?

What way will you go about preparing, taking advantage of, and practicing paths of growth this week? (be specific)

What else might God have been saying to you?
