What questions do you have about this week's message?

What comes to mind when you think of freedom?

Why do you think we all think about "freedom from" much more than "freedom for"?

How has the availing yourself to paths of growth going?

What did you do to expand your praise last week?

Who were you patient with (or tried to be, or remembered later you should have been)?

What might you do this week that requires courage?
