We read/heard many verses today. What verse spoke most to you?

Of the “ NO” things listed that will be no more, what excites you the most?

What if God wanted us to prepare to rule and reign in his new world instead of preparing for and worrying about the end of this one?

What have you not laid down?

All of us pretty much aware of the thing that is keeping us from fully surrendering to Jesus Christ and being transformed by love and power.

Do something with and about that thing.

Take hold of what God says is you are.

When was the last time you told someone to “COME”? To whom?

Minister of God’s grace or MERELY recipient of God’s grace?

God’s glory is demonstrated most strongly in how we treat each other.
